“ Rest in peace uncle John, a truly special uncle and gentlemen. I have fond memories of going to his fire house as a child. He would collect toys for the needy and this day he let me go onto the fire truck and pick anything I wanted. I chose a ragdoll and loved it, but more importantly loved the feeling I was being treated special. His smile and gentle way always made me feel special. Among his many accomplishments I always thought this was an amazing superpower. You are loved and will be missed.
