

John DiCostanzo

July 14, 1959 - February 3, 2025

John DiCostanzo, a devoted father, cherished grandfather, and loyal friend, passed away peacefully, leaving behind a legacy of love, dedication, and family. Born in the Bronx to his loving parents, John and Mary, he spent his life building a strong and close-knit family, on Staten Island, where he created countless memories with those he held dear.

John was a proud father to his two sons, John and Michael, and a beloved father-in-law to Kerri and Jessica. His greatest joy in life was his three grandchildren, Michael, Johnny, and Donna, whom he adored beyond measure. Whether cheering them on at their sporting events or simply enjoying their company, his love for them was endless.

John was predeceased by his beloved wife, Donna, whom he now joins in eternal peace. Though his heart carried the weight of her loss, he found strength in his family, making sure to fill their lives with warmth, laughter, and unwavering support.

He loved the beach, the feeling of the sun on his face, and the simple joy of a beautiful day. His presence brought light and love to all who knew him, and his memory will forever live on in the hearts of those who were lucky enough to have him in their lives.

For 35 years, John was a dedicated employee of Con Edison, where he worked with integrity and commitment. His hard work provided for the family he cherished so deeply.

John's legacy is one of love, devotion, and family. A man who lived not for himself, but for those he loved. His spirit will continue to shine through the lives of his children, grandchildren, and all who were touched by his kindness.

Rest in peace, John. Your love and guidance will never be forgotten.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be at 9:30 AM on Friday at St Thomas the Apostle Church located at 50 Maguire Avenue Staten Island, New York 10309. Interment will be in Resurrection Cemetery, Staten Island, NY.

The family will receive friends from 2:00 PM to 5:00 PM and 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM on Thursday, February 6, 2025, at John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, New York.

John we lived next to each other until high school. We had so much fun in the backyard pools, the ice skating rink in my backyard and the elm street gang. So many great memories! Rest in peace until we meet again!!

John, we knew each other for over 30 years. You were such a special person who would help anyone. You never had anything bad to say about anyone. You lived life to the fullest and loved every minute of it. We teased each other endlessly, and had such good times with everyone in the office. I never met a more well liked person than you. Please watch over your sons, grandchildren, and daughter-in-laws, who love you and need you so much. I know you're with Donna, your parents, and Buster in God's loving care. You will always be in our hearts and prayers, until we meet again.

“ Things will never be the same without you, you took a piece of my heart when you left. I promise to always keep your memory alive, we had some amazing days together. We've made promises , we've had secrets and our loyalty toward each other in unmatched . Wait for me upstairs cuz and say hello to everyone . I'm sure they were all so happy to see you again. I love you John.

“ In heartfelt memory of John a true “Sweetheart” to everyone who has had the pleasure and honor of knowing him. John is the epitome of a Gentleman. He was by far the most selfless person. He naturally exuded kindness and generosity. His friendship meant the world to me and I will forever miss you John ❤️
My sincere condolences to the entire DiCostanzo Family.
