“ Uncle John, I will miss you greatly. Remembering the "quarter" you wanted to give April as a tip in the funeral parlor when Uncle Billy passed, because you said you thought she worked there...LOL Say hello to Aunt Jeannie and my Dad and Mom for me. Godspeed. Forever thinking of you. Always, Joelle

“ I'd like to pay tribute to my father John, I'm the fourth child out of seven children, Maryanne, Joanie, Johnny, Billy, Jimmy, Theresa and my mother Jean. We all grew up looking up to my father, he really knew how to strike that banjo. He instilled a lot of qualities in me like work ethics and was a real role model in my upbringing. He has more integrity than anyone I have ever met. When I was a cop, while making an arrest in central booking, he worked next door in fire prevention and introduced me to all his co-workers and friends. He taught my siblings and I to value the most important things in life, and to always love what you do. I'm really going to miss him around Christmas, he always gave the best gifts! I know now he's up in heaven with mom. I think if I would have become a Fireman my father would have liked me better. I'm so happy that he got the chance to meet my grandson CJ, he was overjoyed. I just wish both CJ and I got the chance to see you play the banjo one last time. I will miss you a lot, dad, and I know you will always be there in spirit and will always shine down upon us. Thank you for always being there. Love you always, your proud son Howie.
