Tribute Wall

“ Just found out about the passing of this dear man, my uncle and godfather. I have such fond memories of the LeVine brothers, which included my dad Bill, always laughing and having good times. And remembering summers at the lake, at Glenwood resort and our Alaska cruise with you and Aunt Joan..... Bless you Uncle Jack!

“ Jack was such a sweet man and a neighbor. I introduced myself to him when he walked past my house one day--I'd recognized him from the NY Times article. We had a pleasant chat where I learned that he'd known my uncle Frank, also a World War II veteran. Jack will be missed.
