“ I remember fond childhood memories of visiting my Uncle and Aunt’s house on Christmas Eve and in the summer time so we could swim in their pool because we did not have one. Although we did not speak often, I am grateful for the kindness and hospitality he showed me and my family when we came to visit. Sometimes small gestures such as those can last a life time. Rest in Peace.

“ There's nothing I can say that will ease the loss of John. He truly was a gentleman and loving grandfather. He would be at the bus stop morning and afternoon with his Ally. Seeing them together you could tell how much he adored her. May God bless you all.

“ I first met John when I started Inspecting Houses. He was such a nice person, always laid back and smiling and very very professional and caring for his clients. And he never hesitated in introducing me around at mixers, on jobs, in his office, etc.... Was always ready and more than happy to help out whether it was myself or the folks he was selling for or looking for a house to purchase. I always looked at that with much appreciation. A true Gentleman and Happy person...RIP John...A pleasure knowing you

“ I’ve known John since his time working with Foxtons over 20 years ago when I first opened my law practice. We connected at real estate networking events at first and over the years he trusted me with many of his real estate clients including his own personal transactions for he and Diana and his sons John and Greg. I am truly going to miss him. We had very similar backgrounds from our love for family to rooting for the Mets. I always considered John a friend , beyond our professional relationship . I am so sad to hear this news and offer my heartfelt condolences to his family . John will always be in my thoughts and prayers .

“ I am so saddened to hear of John’s passing. He was an incredible man with a caring heart. John was the person we would only use to sell our homes. He would always speak about his beautiful family. I will keep John and the family in my prayers during this difficult time. May the Lord provide comfort and strength
