“ John was a lovely neighbor. I can say that he always engaged in conversation to just be nice, help me With gardening or as a Board Member when I needed help. I will miss him. May he rest in peace.

“ I was fortunate enough to know John for many years, not only as a neighbor but also as a friend and fellow board member. His meticulous nature always made our time together enjoyable and productive. John was a dedicated member of the Grymes Hill HOA, always going the extra mile to ensure our community was a wonderful place to live. His contributions will be deeply missed.
