John "Johnny" Salinari passed on April 17 2020 at Staten Island University Hospital South.

The family later moved from Brooklyn to Staten Island where Johnny grew up with his cousins as neighbors and where he made many friends.

He lived his life here on earth full of wonder and intrigue.

With a pure heart and soul he held onto his innocence spreading joy and laughter to all.

Johnny was fascinated by the world. He loved the arts, sciences, history, and music.

Especially Madonna.

At a very young age he began taking pictures and developed his hobby that would continue all of his days. He especially loved capturing friends and family.
