February 23, 1945 - June 17, 2018

John Viverito, 73 of Eltingville, passed away on Sunday, June 17, 2018, at Columbia Presbyterian Hospital in New York City after his courageous battle with kidney disease.

Born Friday, February 23, 1945 in Brooklyn, New York, he was the son of the late Salvatore and Emma Viverito. He was the beloved husband of Lucille Viverito (nee Falco). John and Lucille were married for 40 wonderful years. Together, they raised their daughter, Alissa.

Of the many celebrations over their marriage, most recently John and Lucille celebrated John's "donor"versary. Lucille was a match for John's Kidney donation which took place on November 14, 2017. Just four days before his passing was their 6 month anniversary.

John worked as a teacher at IS24 before retiring in 1979. He enjoyed taking family vacations. Many vacations included trips to Florida and cruises. One of his favorite destinations was Disney World. John was well known for his tan coloring during the summer. He always enjoyed being outdoors and taking the sun, whether in his backyard or on a beautiful beach.

In his spare time, John liked to solve crossword puzzles, watch Star Trek and his favorite baseball team, the New York Yankees. Years back, he enjoyed volunteering at the South Shore Babe Ruth Little League.

Above all, John was a family man. His roles as husband and father always came first. He adored his granddaughter Emma Rose and cherished the times they spent together.

John is survived by his wife Lucille, his daughter, Alissa Viverito and her fiance Vincent DeAngelis, his granddaughter Emma Rose, sister Elaine Conti, cousin Michael DiMare. He was the fond brother in law to many and dear uncle to all his nieces and nephews.

“ The Viverito's always opened their home to me and my family and were always so kind in time of need. I recall the Ridgecrest Block Partys, a casual wine and friends evening at their home which included the Calo's, a quiet backyard gathering with wine and cheese or seafood night at Lacey's Tavern. To a wonderful Man survived by his beautiful wife Lucille, daughter Alyssa and Granddaughter; Tenderly, may time heal your sorrow..Gently, may friends and family ease your pain...Softly, may peace replace your heartache..and may warmest memories remain...All our Love and Deepest Condolences Denise & Jon.
