“ Josefina Ayala, was my mother in law. I was married to her late son for 25 years. After our loss we stayed in touch.

My mother in law was a loving mother who was adored by many. She could carry a good conversation from current events to baseball. She enjoyed crocheting, needle point, watching movies and novelas. She played a good hand of dominoes and cards. Most of all, she loved spending time and holidays with her family.

The last memory that my mother in law and I made was on June 12, 2016. When I, along with a few family members and friends attended a special church mass she dedicated to her late son.

I will never forget the look on her face and the smile when she saw us at the church. When the mass was over we chatted for a bit and said our goodbyes. As I walked away, I looked back and she was still smiling. That is how I will remember my mother in law.

I am so grateful for the memories and her love.

Rest in paradise and fly high Mami Josie. I will never forget you.
