“ Dear Sue,
Sorry to hear about your Husband Joe . I want to pass along my condolences to you and Carmine and your entire family . Not to soften the loss, but one is truly not gone as long as one person remembers them. As human beings we take the loss of a loved one very personally and with great emotional distress. We do this for our own personal loss and without thought of how the person we lost would feel about the distress they unintentionally put upon us. The last thing a loved one would want, is being the source of sorrow on the very people who cared the most about them. I am sure Joe would rather see a smile on your face remembering him for the many happy and humorous moments you shared. So remember Joe for who He was to you in your life and pass those things you learned and valued onto others. By doing so, Joe will always be with you. Rejoice, and be thankful that your life was enriched by his presence.
Keeping you and your family in prayer. Dennis A. 🌈💖🌹🌸🌺

“ Another true Waterfront character has left us way too early. Joe was an expert Toploader driver with an infectious smile and over the top personality. A Tuesday morning NYK South China Express discharge ship would not be complete with Joe serenading the yard by singing, 'Barese, quanto ti chiama Barese.' RIP Mr. Albany. A day won't go by without mentioning your presence on the terminal.

“ One of the nicest, funniest guys I've ever known. It was an honor and a pleasure to spend countless hours both working and on the water fishing with Joe. Thank you for all the GREAT times and GREAT memories shared with both me and my son...you will always be in our hearts! Rest peacefully my friend!
