“ Joseph and I were only a few years apart. My mother once told me how he and I would play together when ever we would go to visit my grandmother and he was around. Needless to say it's not something I remember as it was more than 70 years ago. My dad's family is rather small. There was Joe and myself, my 2 sisters and Uncle Sal's two kids. On my mothers side I had many cousins, most of whom lived within a two block radius and so they were the people I spent my time with. In 1983, when I married I asked Joe to be in my small bridal party and he said yes. I'll always be glad for that. Rest in peace Joe, thee first journey is over. Your older cousin Sal.

“ I was heartbroken to hear of Joe’s passing. Chuck and I always enjoyed his stories. Chuck considered Joe his brother. I will always remember his great sense of humor, big beautiful smile, great personality, and the love he had for Angela and his family. My prayers and thoughts are with Angela, the family and his dear friend Tony. He will most certainly be missed by many. May he Rest In Peace in God’s loving arms. God gained an angel.
