

Joseph Kenneth Devine

February 21, 1933 - October 19, 2020

Joseph Kenneth Devine of Eltingville passed away on Monday October 19, 2020 surrounded by his loving family. Born in Brooklyn to the late James and Hazel, Joseph or as he was known as, Ken, owned and operated a cermaic factory in the Coney Island section of Brookly, where they made piggy banks, statues and all different types of cermaic items.

He met the love of his love Joyce at the Brooklyn Academy of Music, and they were inseperable until her death last May. Ken loved Opera, whether it be attending performances or listing to records. His collection of albums numbered in the hundreds. A man who enjoyed the simple pleaseures life offered, he enjoyed fishing, travelling with his late wife Joyce and being with his family.

He is survived by his devoted son Kevin and his wife Lori. His grandson Nicholas, his granddaughter Michelle Santangelo. His brother Bobby and his sister Eileen McDermott. He was pre deceased by his siblings James, Ronnie and Betty Vastola.

A gathering of family and friends will take place of Friday from 5-9 p.m. at the John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals Inc. A Mass of Christian Burial wil be offered at the Church of the Holy Child beginning at 10:00am. Following Mass Joseph will be laid to rest in Resurrection Cemetery alongside his beloved wife Joyce.

Please be mindful due to the current State mandate that a mask must be worn at all times in the funeral home and social distancing requirements must be followed during the services. Due to the current Pandemic a strict 40-50 person in room policy is in effect, please adhere to this policy and allow others to pay their respects as well.

Due to the current pandemic circumstances, the funeral is not accepting flowers from outside florists, If you should so desire to order flowers please do so from the link on the website or contact the florist directly at:

“ Dear Kevin, Lori, Nicholas and Michelle, I am so sorry for your loss. Uncle Ken was such a gentle and loving man. I remember all the family holiday's with him. The times he got lost going to a place he had bin a 100 times and his genuine joy to be with his family. He will be greatly missed.

With much Love,

Robert Devine

“ Ken you were a man with a heart of gold one of the best dads, husbands and poppy's i have ever known.I consider myself one of the lucky ones who did get to be a part of your life and any one who was lucky enough to have you in their life would agree that there weren't many men like you out there. Ken you will be dearly missed may you rest in peace. With our deepest sympathies to the family.
