I was so sad to hear about Mr. Dolce's passing. Dolce Meats was our go to market for meat, cold cuts, anything. He was the nicest man, and so handsome. My mom would say he could have been an actor. When I think back to the good old days of Gravesend, Brooklyn, and the (in)famous Avenue U, I will always remember Dolce's.

Joe was my first employer. He was the first person ever to teach me, "do the job once and do it right, kid." That was 1987. Was happy - and grateful - to see him a couple years ago. Caught up on some chats and finally got to tell him his wisdom stuck with me all these years. Rest In Peace Joe. You are greatly missed.

“ Our Deepest sympathy to the family of Joe Dolce as I am from Iowa I never had the opportunity to meet Joe but talked with he and Frankie on a weekly basis during there operation of Dolce Meats and sold them meat. My reflections are truly based on our telephone conversation of which were many. A gentleman in many ways he shared a love for his family as well as my own family always showing concern, a man that I always admired and enjoyed conversing with, I am sure Joe loved his family and they were a large part of his life. As I have lost both of my parents I truly know what the family is now going through with this great loss Frankie be strong and remember all the good times working together with Joe as I know you have plenty. May God Bless your family help you remain strong in the next days and weeks to follow. Frankie take care of your self !!!! Thank You for allowing me to know such a great man may he rest in peace and not have to suffer any more. Gene Mohni. Spirit Lake ,Iowa

“ Our beloved Uncle Joe a very loving and generous man. Our last visit in 2014 was a special one. Living in Florida we did not get up to see family as often as we would have liked to. He told us the story of how he helped my mom pick the Passaic house because my dad was away at sea. When we lived in NJ, we enjoyed our visits to his home. A good night to pay him a visit was on Saturday. There was a pretty good chance Aunt Florence would be serving steak. It brings a smile to my face just remembering this. We talked of family. He always cared and valued our family. His words to us were “ of course your my family” That’s the man I admired and loved. We are proud to call him uncle. His life and spirit will always be treasured in our memories.

“ Uncle Joe was wonderful man and held a special place in my heart. We had talked on the phone but I have not seen him in a while, always so friendly. I have wonderful memories of many childhood visits. He always remember my "WOW" reaction to a giant steak he barbecued for me, poor Donna only got a sausage. lol. He always enjoyed sharing this memory with me. I will never forget in the 70's when we were having difficulties. He and Aunt Florence surprised us and came to our home and filled our freezer with food. A wonderful caring man, always smiling, and that is how I will remember him.
