

Joseph Falleti

February 12, 1933 - April 12, 2019

Joseph Falleti, 86, passed away on Friday, April 12, 2019, at his home after a 28 year courageous battle with cancer. His loving family was by his side.

He was born Sunday, February 12, 1933 in Albany, New York, raised in Brooklyn, and currently resided in Grasmere.

Joseph was a sanitation worker with the NYC Department of Sanitation, working in Brooklyn for 28 years and retiring in 1979. He then was a yellow taxi cab driver in Manhattan. Joseph, a very religious man, was devoted to his faith and a longtime parishioner of St. Sylvester Church.

He would just love to sit in his favorite recliner watching Judge Judy and wrestling. He had a funny personality and his family lovingly called him "superman" and said he was a man who had many jokes to tell, and he even told jokes up until his last days. Joseph always had a smile on his face and was kind hearted and friendly to all. Above all, he was a devoted and loving husband, father and grandfather who adored his family and cherished time spent with them.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 59 years, Angelina. Loving father of Joseph S. Falleti, Marie Colavito, Theresa Seggio and Jean Skidmore. Devoted grandfather of Michael, Kristina, Christopher, Brittany, Nicholas, Shannon, Tori, Alexa, Tyler and Angelina. Cherished great grandfather of Kaylee June and Michael. Dear brother-in-law of Joe and Alicia Pepe.
