

Joseph Fasulo

March 20, 1931 - October 24, 2023

Joseph "Joe Beans" Fasulo, 92, a devoted family man, loving friend, and proud veteran, passed away on October 24, 2023, at Staten Island University Hospital. Born in Brooklyn, NY on March 20, 1931, Joe was known for his selfless spirit, friendly demeanor, and an abundance of love for those in his life.

Joe's journey began in the heart of Brooklyn, where he was born to Charles and Marie Fasulo. His early life was filled with the hustle and bustle of city life, shared with his siblings Johnny, Modesta, Angie, Lillie and Tina. At the age of 18, Joe was drafted into the Army, where he served as a cook during the Korean War. This experience instilled in him a deep sense of patriotism and a strong work ethic that he carried throughout his life.

Upon returning to civilian life, Joseph entered the butcher trade, working for Swift & Co. before moving on to the Meat Packing District in Lower Manhattan. His years of dedication and hard work in the industry were a testament to his character, as he was known for his commitment and reliability. In his retirement, Joe cherished the time he could spend with his friends from Bensonhurst, reminiscing about the good old days.

Joe's personal life was as rich and fulfilling as his professional one. He was married to the late Angela Marie Viola, a love story that spanned many decades. Together, they raised three children: Joseph, Angela, and AnneMarie. Joe was not only a loving husband and father but also a dear father-in-law to Ray and Camille, a doting grandfather to his five grandchildren: Kristina, RaeAnne, Lauren, Daniel, and Stephanie. He also leaves behind his sister Tina, his brother-in-law Joe, and numerous friends who will miss him dearly.

In addition to his work and family, Joe had a passion for sports and social activities. He was an avid fan of the New York Yankees and Giants, often found cheering them on during games. Joe also enjoyed bowling, a hobby that allowed him to combine his love for friendly competition and camaraderie. He looked forward to attending reunions with his friends from Bensonhurst, cherishing the memories they shared.

Joe was a man who lived his life with a warmth and generosity that touched everyone he met. He was selfless in his actions, always looking out for others before himself. His friendly demeanor made him a joy to be around, and his love for his family and friends was evident in everything he did.

Joseph Fasulo is preceded in death by his beloved wife Angie, his parents Charles and Marie, and his siblings Johnny, Modesta, Angie, and Lillie. His memory will continue to live on through his children, grandchildren, sister, brother-in-law, and the many friends that loved him. His life was a testament to the power of love, friendship, and dedication, and he will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

Though we mourn his passing, we also celebrate a life well-lived, remembering the love and joy that Joe brought into our lives. We honor his memory by living out the values he held dear - love for family, dedication to work, and a commitment to friendship. His spirit will forever be a part of our lives, reminding us of the power of love and the importance of living life to the fullest.
