“ Dad

I can't believe this day is here. I love you so much you are the best dad. You are a fighter hardworking family man. Suzanne and me were so blessed for all you and mommy have done for us. It has been one day and life feels so empty already. I know you are with everyone as you say on the other side at peace. Vincent and Marissa have learned so much from their Papa Joe. You were a true gentleman that never asked for anything and had a rough road of health issues that nobody would believe. We were blessed to have the Doctor's you had the best of the best. Daddy you are now our angel. Love Janelle Vinny Vincent & Marissa

“ From teaching me to drive at age 5 on your lap, to teaching me how to sneak a beer without aunt cookie knowing, you've always inspired a smile. Throughout all the years you've never let a visit go by without a bunch of laughs and your "secret" handshake! A soul that won't go forgotten anytime soon, forever love and miss you uncle Joey!

“ My Uncle Joey was one of a kind. I remember when I was younger I knitted him a multicolored scarf that took a few years to finish. He would kid around and ask me year after year when it would be done. He proudly wore that extra long scarf! He always made me laugh. He had a big heart and loved his family as much as we loved him. I'm so glad I had him in my life growing up. I'll miss you always Uncle Joey, I love you ❤️

“ My uncle Joey was one of the funniest, caring people I have had the pleasure of knowing. I am so lucky he was my uncle! He made light of every situation, even when he was suffering. I will miss him dearly. When I was younger, I used to look forward to seeing him every holiday because he would make me crack up with his silly impersonations. It brings me peace knowing he is with his daughter and my cousin, Suzanne. I'm glad they have each other in heaven.

“ My Uncle Joey was one of the best guys in the world. He was funny, handsome and so smart. He would do anything for you. One of my favorite memories of him when I was very young... he took me to the store and said you can have anything you want... I said I wanted pink furry slippers and he laughed and said that's all you want and I said yes.... he bought them for me. I thought he was amazing and till this day I feel the same about him. :)
