

Joseph A. Lanza

August 19, 1927 - January 2, 2018

Joseph A. Lanza, 90, a devoted husband, father and grandfather, passed away on Tuesday, January 2, 2018, at Staten Island University Hospital North.

He was born and raised in Brooklyn, and settled in Tottenville in 1998. Joseph served in the United States Navy as a Seaman First Class from 1944 to 1946, serving stateside on the USS Intrepid, which is now a historic museum at the Manhattan Piers. After he was honorably discharged, he was transferred to the Naval Reserves.

After his service, Joseph worked as a Sanitation Worker for the NYC Department of Sanitation, retiring in 1980, at which time he then continued to work for Chase Manhattan Bank for 10 years, retiring in 1990. He was a devout catholic, and longtime parishioner of Our Lady Help of Christians Church, and served as an Usher at the church. In Joseph's leisure time, he loved cooking and shopping.

He was the beloved husband to Fanny; loving father to Francine Barone and Carol Brady; dear brother to Carmela Racano, Amelia Denino, Mary Messina, Frances Colucci and the late Anthony and John Lanza; and devoted grandfather to Matthew, Michael and Liana.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday at Our Lady Star of the Sea Church located at 5411 Amboy Road Staten Island, New York 10312. Interment will follow in Resurrection Cemetery, Staten Island, NY.

The family will receive friends from 2-5 and 7-9 p.m. on Friday at The John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd. (at Eltingville Station), Staten Island, New York.
