“ Roseann Russo (Caccavale)
My deepest sympathy on the loss of your brother Joe. May he Rest In Peace. Many thanks to him for taking my Mom to the hospital to visit my Dad.

Roseann Russo - February 18, 2022 at 02:48 PM

“ Today is is not a good day, because my cousin Amelia just informed me of my cousin Joe's passing. I have those great childhood family memories from those times in Brooklyn , but as life sometimes dictates, we go our separate ways. Fortunately, I was able to connect with Joe, and Amelia, a few years ago, and ironically, we both were located as snowbirds, about a mile from each other in Florida. My wife Karen was able to meet Joe, Amelia, Dolores, and Terri. We talked about those old days, and it was good to reconnect. Joe was a kind and generous guy, who, when my Dad was seriously ill, took my Mom to see him, in the hospital, while I was out of town.

*Our deepest sympathy to the family of Joseph.

“ Although we only met Joe once at the funeral of his good friend, Fred Monteleone, we knew we were in the presence of a revered family man. As it turns out, we now live in the same community in Florida as Joe's sister, Amelia. Amelia and Terri have become our friends. Family values are very evident here. Amelia has shared memories of growing up with her oldest brother, Joe, and how very close they are. When he passed, she said every niece, nephew, great-niece and great-nephew called to extend their sympathy. They knew their Aunt Amelia was very close with Joe. That simple act of kindness and respect lifted Amelia's spirits at such a sad time.

"Walk with me to the end, because In the end there is nothing you can do to change things. But your presence is everything."

Paul and Sharon Messina extend their deepest sympathy to the family of Joseph Martinelli.
