“ I just found out about this tragic loss after several unanswered texts and calls. Joe was a close friend on my mom (Norma) who passed away in September of 2019. Most of my mom's family and friends got to know Joe and we all considered him a good friend. He visited my mom regularly during the last year of her life in hospitals and nursing homes and always stayed a good while, cheered her up, and gave her inspiration. I enjoyed talking to him and was looking forward to seeing him again after COVID calmed down. There are a good number of people who became friends with Joe through my mom that were not aware of his passing and are truly saddened by the news. I have some pictures and stories I would like to share with his family - which although he spoke of often, I never had to opportunity to meet. I will ask Scalia to share my email and address with the you. Feel free to contact me if you would like to. My sincere condolences to all of Joe's family and friends. We miss you Joe!

“ I have not seen Joe in long time. I was very sorry to hear of his passing. I can particularly remember him driving me and Kathy, probably 1970's, to airport when passenger door opened and truck slammed into door. He helped us get a cab and continued to collision shop. Omg took the whole incident with grain of salt. I can recall many fun events back in those days including shore weekends in Manasquan, or weekend nights at their house just to get together. Many good memories. He was a funny guy and I know will be missed. My sincere condolences to Rob and his entire family. He will be in our prayers. Anna Castronovo
