

Joseph Mosscrop

November 19, 1951 - April 15, 2016

Joseph William Mosscrop, Jr., of Great Kills, passed away Friday, April 15, 2016, at Staten Island University South with family by his side. He was 64.

Born and raised in Brooklyn, New York, Joe moved to Staten Island in 1977 with his wife, Joyce.

He worked at the Brooklyn Union Gas Company for 44 years -- he just retired in May 2015. Joe was hard-working man who loved his job and always had a funny story to share about his experiences on the job.

He is survived by his loving wife of 43 years, Joyce Mosscrop; children, Christopher Mosscrop and Jennifer Setteducato; son-in-law, Peter John Setteducato; granddaughter, Anna Setteducato; mother, Frances Mosscrop; brother, Donald Mosscrop; nephew, Christian Mosscrop; and numerous friends.

Joe was a huge music lover, animal lover and sports fan. He enjoyed being with his family and visiting with his new baby granddaughter; taking trips to Atlantic City with his wife; and shooting the breeze with friends. Anyone who knew Joe would say that he will be remembered most for his quick-witted sense of humor and ability to make a friend wherever he went. He would do anything for his loved ones. And yes, he even bowled a perfect game. Joe will be greatly missed.

A celebration of his life will take place on Monday from 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m. at the John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, New York 10312.

The Funeral Service will take place on Tuesday, 10:00 a.m., at the Funeral Home. Interment to follow at Resurrection Cemetery.
