Joseph Piliago, 88, passed away on Wednesday, December 12, 2018, at Carmel Richmond Health Care & Rehab. Cntr. in Staten Island, New York.

“ What a man my Grandpa was.. Such a great loving one of a kind type of guy. The definition of a real man! I am so blessed to have him as my grandfather someone so great. Someone I love so much. Someone who knew how to make anyone smile. Just my grandfathers presence was enough to shed light on your day. Anyone who knew Joey would tell you how honest and generous he is. He always loved to joke and what a personality he has like no other. He brought everyone together and showed so much love towards everyone he was close with. All the time we spent together Gramps.. I cherish every moment I've spent with you...all the years I lived with you.. everyday reading the paper, doing the crosswords, watching all the games and your coffee every night. Always coming outside.. Christopher c'mon time for supper. Be in when the street lights are on. Wanna take a ride with me. Love you my Gramps. I'll be with you again my brother!!!!

“ I worked with Joe for 13 years & always enjoyed his company. He was both a gentleman & a gentle man. I enjoyed joking around with him & talking baseball. After we both retired, I would call him every few weeks & always enjoyed our conversations. I will miss him very much.

“ My Dad was my hero. I wanted to be just like him. Everyone loved him. He didn't have much but whatever he had he shared. If I even am half as good a person as my Dad was I would be better than most. Although we really didn't express our feelings for each other I knew he loved me very much and I loved him unconditionally. The best Dad any Son could have. I love you Dad...RIP
