

Joseph Pisani

March 21, 1946 - December 29, 2024

Joseph Anthony Pisani, 78, of Staten Island, NY passed away on December 29th, 2024 in Staten Island, NY.

Joseph was born in Brooklyn, NY to Anthony and Catherine Pisani on March 21st, 1946. He attended high school at Lafayette and graduated in the year 1963. He went on to earn a Bachelor's degree in Accounting from Pace University. He worked on Wall Street before deciding to become an entrepreneur and opened up many Carvel ice cream locations over the span of 45 years, the last 13 of which he owned a Cinnabon franchise as well. In his younger years he loved fishing, kayaking, and skydiving. As he grew older he enjoyed reading about businesses and investing in the stock market but most of all he cherished spending time with his family.

Joseph is survived by his wife Vivian, his children Craig and Lauren, her husband Joe, and grandchildren Joey Jayde and Vivy Rey.

Funeral service will be held at Our Lady Star of the Sea on January 3rd, 2025 at 11:00am. Visitation will be held at 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, NY 10312 on January 2nd from 2-4 and 6-8. Scalia Funeral Home will be handling all the funeral arrangements.

Memorial donations may be made to the Humane Society of the United States.

Joseph was a patient, kind, and loving man with a good sense of humor. He was loved deeply by his friends, family, and, all those who worked for him. He will be missed and never forgotten.

“ He was my second dad. I will never forget the beautiful memories I have with him: making fun of our singing or just poking fun because he was hilarious. His sense of humor was just perfect. I truly loved him like a father and my heart is broken. Love you all so much.

“ Working for Joe was an amazing time. He always knew how to treat his employees. I often think of Sundays when he would bring his wife and a dozen bagels and we would eat in the back, sip his Cinnabon coffee and talk about life before opening. He will be missed.
