

Josephine "Dora" Bocchino

April 15, 1941 - November 23, 2016

Josephine "Dora" Bocchino, 75 of Great Kills, passed away on November 23, 2016, at The Addeo House.

She and her husband, Louis moved to Staten Island from Brooklyn in 1971. They were very proud to give their three children a private Catholic education at St. Clare's, where they were parishioners, as well as St. Joseph by the Sea.

Dora spent many years in the banking industry on Staten Island, particularly at Richmond County Savings Bank, where she worked her way up from teller to assistant manager. She was well liked by her colleagues and customers. Shortly after her retirement in 2002, she suffered a devastating loss when Louis passed after a brief illness. She mourned him and the golden years they missed out on until this day. Her family takes peace in knowing that they are together again.

Prior to his passing they enjoyed traveling and took many trips including Italy, London, Spain, California and the Caribbean. She also treated her family to vacations in the Bahamas and South Carolina. She enjoyed treating her grandchildren out to dinner in fancy restaurants and Broadway shows. It was customary for each grandchild to see their first play on their 5th birthday. She had many friends, with whom she often saw movies with, dined out or traveled with. She was an avid reader, especially of Adriana Trigiani's Italian themed books. She also loved to listen to Frank Sinatra, Neil Diamond and Andrea Boccelli.

She is survived by her three children, Linda Scacco (James), Robert (Gina) and Barbara Moran (Kevin). Devoted grandmother of Michael Scacco, Nicholas, Matthew and Alexa Bocchino and Jack, Abby and Joseph Moran. She was predeceased by her brother Thomas Sfraga.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered on Monday at 11:00 a.m. at St. Clare Church, 110 Nelson Ave. S.I. A private cremation will follow. The family will receive friends from 7-9 on Saturday and 2-4 & 7-9 p.m. on Sunday at The John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd. (at Eltingville Station), Staten Island.

I just found out that Dora had passed away. We knew her and her husband Lou many years ago when she lived in an apartment on the lower floor and the Carona's lived on the second floor. We had many a party down in the basement and even went to the Poconos with them. A lot of good memories with Lou and Dora. Have lost touch with her so long ago. Rest in Peace dear one.
