“ Josie. You were a special person and a special friend. We have so many happy memories of Nicholas and our family playing together. You will always hold a special place in our hearts. So many parties at our house. Your kindness and laughter were contagious. You are now an angel watching over Sarah and Nicholas. RIP. Love. Ursula and Anthony

“ Love from Nieces Lee, Sylvia, Pat and their families. We are all sad with the passing of Aunt Josie, but we were all blessed to have had her in our lives. I remember the stories she told and how she made us all laugh. Aunt Josie was special to all of us. Aunt Josie rest in peace and you will be in our hearts forever. Love and kisses.

“ Mom, you’ve been out of the house two days, and Nicholas and I are lost. We still hear your voice and look at the recliner and still see you sitting there. Ted keeps looking for you and is constantly going in your bedroom. It’s amazing how one small lady can have such an impact on us. You made us laugh, sometime you frustrated us, but we loved you unconditionally. I miss our days out to lunch, the Christmas Tree shop and the mall. It’s been several years since we did that, but I have fond memories of going out together. I remember the time we were going to lunch at Golden’s and you told me how good you felt that day, and suddenly you tripped and wound up on the ground! We laughed hysterically because we couldn’t get you up. Two men came running over got you up, and after they left we continued to laugh so hard walking into Golden’s!! In moments, we had the whole restaurant laughing not knowing why we were laughing! You had an infectious laugh and a great sense of humor. All my friends loved coming to our house because they never knew what was going to come out of your mouth. Mom, we lived together all of our lives, and just never thought of you leaving. I was so fortunate to have for as long as I did, and I thank God every day for that. You were my best friend. I love you with all my heart and soul and I know you are happy to be with Daddy and your brothers and sisters and mother and father. May you rest in eternal peace. We have an Angel who will always watch over us. Your loving daughter Sarah 🥰🙏❤️

Josie, so many memories! Where do I begin? Your laughter was infectious, your cooking delicious! And you went above and beyond by making me pork bracciola (hope I spelled it right) several times. I couldn’t wait for Sarah to bring it to work - knowing I would eat it that night - cold! I can close my eyes now and still recall that taste! May you Rest In Peace in God’s care 🙏

Josie...Although I met you later on in life, I always enjoyed our visits. You were such a special lady and were always so warm and welcoming when I came over. I have especially fond memories of you on Barclay Ave when you were still able to get around so easily and couldn't do enough to make me feel at home. I loved how you used to curse at Alf (when you thought no one could hear you) even though deep inside I knew you loved him. 😊 You had a wonderful sense of humor and were one of the strongest, spunkiest women I ever met. May you rest in eternal peace in the arms of Jesus! 🙏 Love, Doreen💕

Josie- I have memories of you from when we were neighbors and I can still recall your laugh and remember how you would laugh with your entire body and be so happy. I recall a lot of laughing with you, Sarah and my Mom (Ursula). I remember you in your apron taking care of Nicholas and being so happy to be with him. I feel blessed to have these memories and I know you were a treasure to Sarah and Nicholas. Rest In Peace and keep laughing and smiling from above💕. Love, Joann
