“ My husband, Joe, & myself wish to extend our heartfelt condolences to the family of both Josephine & Nick Inganamorte. We've had the pleasure of knowing them for 35 years. They were always available to offer their friendship, advice & support whenever called upon. We considered them not only close neighbors but also family. They will be greatly missed. Josephine & Nick, together with their family will always be in our prayers.

My Sincere condolences to my cousins Maryanne and Jimmy.My Aunt Jo was a big part of my growing years. She was a smart tough Brooklyn gal and never afraid to speak her mind.She was a big part of my life.My Uncle Nick was a great Guy always friendly and sweet. He treated me to a game at Yankee Stadium back in 58.....Charley and Marianne Caracappa

“ My heart is truly broken. I knew Uncle Nick and Grandma Jo more than half my life. They always had a kind word for everyone and treated my son like their own grandchild. We have many happy memories from our times at Villa Roma and celebrations throughout the years. I will miss seeing them at Maryanns house or in their same seats at church each week. Most of all I will just miss them with my whole heart. May they rest in peace together, as they always were.

*Dear Maryann and Jim,
I actually remember your wonderful parents from when I was living on Arden Avenue back in the 1960s. We lived next-door to you at 1079 Arden Ave. Even though all these many years have gone by I still think of them with great fondness and remember your mom belting out Frank Sinatra numbers on the weekend when she had the music cranked up and the windows open. She and my mom, Dorothy Hodge, were very good friends. Please know that your parents were very loved and remembered even after all these years and you have my deepest condolences.*
