“ Although i never met Josephine i have had the privilege of working with , and becoming very close to her son and grandson over the last four years ...even though i only knew her through them she must have been a truly wonderful and exceptional person as her son and grandson are two of the kindest most genuinely good and honorable people i have ever met in a fifty year career in the financial industry ... God blessed her with long life and a loving family and God gave Damon , Keith and the rest of her family the incredible gift of her presence in their lives for a remarkably long time...We will honor her memory by reciting the prayers of our faith now and in all future holy day services ..all our love Adria and Joel Marcus
