“ I have many wonderful memories of Aunt Jo: she always gave me good advice , and was there for me,when I was growing up. She helped my Mom take care of me when I was an infant. Iloved going to her house on 8 th.Street, (then 11 th.Street),on Sunday's, and enjoying her good cooking: rigatoni in gravy, meatballs, chicken cutlets-(to name a few...), all made with love ! Aunt Jo was there to comfort me when my Mom , also named Josephine Maresco, passed away. She came to my High School Graduation, and my graduation from the Police Academy.. She taught me how to snap my fingers to the theme song from the Adams Family TV show; and made me vanilla malteds, in the old Hamilton Beach drink mixer, that Uncle Joey "found" .She told great stories : when she worked as a Telephone Operator; or when she worked on Election Day at the polling place, in the school on 6th. Avenue-always with a message, or something to be learned. She always went to Sunday Mass at St. Saviors Church, and then out to breakfast at Tiffany Diner, with Uncle Joey.She spent many good times with my son Louis ,when he was young,; always offering to make him a grilled cheese sandwich with velvetta cheese. Her and Uncle Joey were a good team together- now they can be together again, with Louis, and Dennis. Rest in Peace , Louis. T. Maresco, jr.
