

Judith A Alles

December 7, 1949 - December 1, 2022

Judith Ann Alles, Born December 7, 1949 and passed away December 1, 2022.

Judy was raised in Dongan Hills with her three sisters Laurie Houston, Karen Wamba and Lisa Marmo. She was a member of St. Matthew's Lutheran church for many years where she taught Sunday School, sang in the choir and played the organ and where she married her husband of 48 years William J. Alles Jr.

She graduated New Dorp High school in 1967 where she studied bookkeeping and clerical work. She worked for many years as a bookkeeper at the former Andrew Tranchina masonry supply business, a job she returned to for several years after raising her family.

She was a devoted mother to her two sons William III and Stephen and her daughter Amanda and involved herself in many of their school activities.

She was an avid music lover and sang for several years with the Richmond Choral Society. Aside from playing the organ she played the piano and electronic keyboard and was learning to play the guitar and mandolin. She was also a craft lover and knitted and crocheted many clothing items and blankets.

Later on she taught herself not just how to use computers but how to clear up problems with them up to a complete removal of and reloading of various programs.

Truly a multi-talented woman and in her spare time was also an avid reader. Faced with several debilitating illnesses later in life, she never complained and stoically bore her burdens gracefully. She will be sorely missed by her family.

A Funeral service will be at 11:00 AM on Friday at The John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals, Inc. located at 28 Eltingville Blvd. (at Eltingville Station) Staten Island, New York 10312.
