

Julia Tudisco

August 2, 1926 - March 24, 2023

Julia Tudisco, 96, of Annadale, born August 2, 1926, she was the only daughter of the late Anna and Vito, and the sister of the late Dominick and Joseph Dachille.

She was a parishioner of Our Lady of Pity, and continued to receive the Eucharist each Sunday once she was home bound.

Julia had four children with her first husband, the late Joseph Tabeek, the eldest of which is the late Louis Tabeek (June). She is survived by Marianne Parisi (Tom), Francine Pagano (Nazzaro) and Joseph Tabeek (Lilia). Later in life she married the late Louis Tudisco and saw much of the United States with him. She is also survived by seven grandchildren - Claire, Ben, Jennifer, Elisa, Alana, Kristen, Lauren - and seven great grandchildren - Dominic, Lily, Theodore, Alice, Harper, Gabriella and Julian.

Julia was famous for hosting Friday dinners for her children and grandchildren - making lasagna, penne with mini meatballs or stuffed shells to feed a small army. She was also known by her great grandchildren with paws as "the chicken lady", feeding all of the dogs as well. She enjoyed playing crazy rummy with her family, crosswords and Sudoku.

She will be missed tremendously by everyone who knew her for the rest of their lives.
