“ Julio and I worked for many years at the NYSE together, my wife, Janet and I and our boys , Jeffrey and Jason spent many Christmas gatherings together at stock exchange parties and at the house with our other co-workers and always had great times. As of the last several years Janet and I have met them at Costco frequently and always shared memories of children and grandchildren. We always ended our talks with hugs and kisses. Both Julio and Frances will be in our thoughts. Rest in peace dear friends.

“ Mr. Quinones was a very wonderful man. My mother and I met him and his wife at Costco. We were regular customers there and would often visit the store just to visit Mrs. Frances. My family absolutely adored this very lovely couple and considered Mr. and Mrs. Quinones as family. They both were such beautiful people and it breaks my heart to hear that they have perished in such a horrific way. Costco will never be the same without them both. They were the light of the store and will be greatly missed. I remember when my twin sister went into surgery to remove a cyst in her throat and they both sent their love and prayers to my family. We will forever be thankful for that. When I gave birth to my first and only child, they sent my baby boy and I some wonderful gifts and I will forever be thankful for that. It is a great loss to their family and friends and my heart goes out to the grandchildren and children they always spoke so highly of. I will keep you all in my prayers and ask that God love, protect, and console the family at this difficult time. As the last of my family on this island, I would be honored to attend the funeral service to pay respects and to also say my last goodbye to this wonderful and loving couple. We have lost two very precious people but God has gained two beautiful angels and is welcoming them into his kingdom as we speak. RIP Frances and Julio Quinones. We all love and miss you both dearly. <3 I am very sorry for your loss.

“ *I remember Julio from when I worked with Fran several years back. A wonderful man.
