

Kathleen L. Lorie

January 18, 1933 - August 7, 2017

Kathleen L. Lorie, 84 of Spotswood, New Jersey passed away on Monday, August 7, 2017, at Robert Wood Johnson Medical Center.

A native Staten Islander, Kathleen was born and raised in Eltingville. In the early 60's she moved to Perth Amboy and also lived in Linden, NJ before settling in Spotswood in 2009.

As her family stated, she was a woman who enjoyed the simple things in life, always carefree. She enjoyed playing bingo and taking trips to Atlantic City, but most importantly she loved spending time with her family. Kathleen was known for making wonderful desserts, especially her apple pies. She also was fond of being a server, serving meals to the residents who lived in the senior center in Spotswood.

She is survived by her daughter, Catherine Villig-Kaulfers; her brother, Joseph Destefani; her sister, Rose Taylor; her grandchildren, Kathleen Jennings and Christine and Robert Lorie; and her great grandchildren, Bryan, Tyler, Dylan, Evan, Shawn and Nathan..

The family will receive friends from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. on Friday at The John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd. (at Eltingville Station), Staten Island, New York.

Cremation services will be private.
