“ Kathy was a strong woman who I had the pleasure to work with for several years. Not only did she help the many children that passed through her office she was also a strong backbone for many of the staff she worked with like myself. Kathy and I share the same birthday....she will forever be remembered.

I send my condolence to her husband who I had the pleasure to meet a few years ago and to the rest of her family. I can't imagine the impact of losing such a strong member of your family.. God be with you during these painful times.

Her strength and support that she gave to all those she encountered will live on within us...forever.

Thank you Kathy..Gone but never forgotten.

“ Love, Prayers and Hugs to Mike, his children and grandchildren. I grew up with Kathy going to St. Anselm's and Fort Hamilton High School. We shared many fun times as well as our marriages to our spouses. May Kathy rest in peace and may God look over Mike and her family. May the memories sustain them in these difficult times. Much love, Elise and Pete Knepper
