

Kathryn J. Metwally

January 28, 1946 - May 13, 2020

Kathryn J. Metwally, 74, passed away on Wednesday, May 13, 2020, at Staten Island University Hospital South.

She was born and raised in Bay Ridge, Brooklyn and was a graduate of Bay Ridge High School. In 1976 she moved to South Beach. Kathryn also lived in Rosebank and settled in Tottenville in 1985.

She was a waitress for various diners in Staten Island for over 20 years and then took on a career as a Nurses Aide at Staten Island University Hospital South for 11 years.

One of her greatest passions was helping animals in need. Throughout her life she always had pet dogs and cats who she cared for and would always rescue them, and provide a good home to them. In her leisure time, Kathryn enjoyed playing cards, doing crafts and sewing and was an avid Bingo player.

She was the beloved wife to Ed. Loving mother Eleanor, Dorothy and William Wells and Sham Metwally. Dear sister to Dottie Randall and the late Walter Thomas Cahill. Devoted grandmother to Basim, Sara, Nora, Ella and Lucas and fond sister-in-law to Kathleen Wells.

Tribute Wall

“ Kathryn J. Metwally

---

October 04, 2023 at 06:13 PM