“ Rev Ken frequently visited with us at our Rhema Prayer Ministries' Saturday services. He married my lovely, childhood friend Anne & we shared much on our phonecalls about our love of our dear Lord Jesus. He was the strong Patriarch of his beautiful family. He & Anne have provided them with a firm foundation in Christ, and a wonderful legacy in Him. Until we meet again, dear Brother!!! ❤️

“ Kenny approached Danny and I in the parking lot as we were getting out of our car in 1981 at El Bethel church. He nurtured and befriended us and loved on us for the next 40 years as did Anne. He was our brother. Anne our sister. Kenny Jr, Keith, Kirsten, Kyle I love you so much. You know that your Dad and Danny are Worshiping their Jesus in Heaven together. I'm sure they are telling their tall Irish 🍀 tales in between their laughter. To be in Gods presence ~ I can only imagine. I'll miss Kenny in my heart and soul FOREVER.

“ You could go to Pastor Ken if you had a question and he always did his best to give you an answer. I will never forget he spoke at my dads wake in queens. I greatly appreciated that and will never forget the great man of God that he was. I love and will miss him very much.
