“ Will miss you my dear Brother <3. One of my fondest memories is when we went to the U.S. Open and we both saw our favorite tennis stars walk right in front of us, it was Great Day! And of course falling down cellar back in 83rd and what do you do..... you got up and died laughing while we all thought you broke you legs! Yep that was you!! Rest In Peace .....

“ I considered Kenny a good friend.
Kenny was a very passionate man.
Kenny and Diane loved to go on cruises for vacation. We had a family vacation on a cruise in 2001.
When we on the cruise and we were fortunate to see Kenny dressed in his tuxedo and getting up on stage and singing a Frank Sinatra song. He was actually really good.
Kenny loved to fish and on that cruise we booked a boat in Bermuda to fish but we didn't catch anything but we had a great time.
Kenny was very passionate about sports, The Yankees, The Jets, and The Rangers. Kenny and I went to a couple of Knicks games and we would sneak down to the REAL good seats but usually we got asked to leave but we enjoyed it.
Kenny was very passionate about his music and Kerry and I went to a Cream concert at MSG with Diane and Kenny, we had dinner and drinks together and once again we had a good time
Kenny was passionate about his boats and I went out fishing with him a couple of times. The last time we went out Diane hooked a big fluke and I went to help her bring it in but I messed up and the fluke got away. Kenny wasn't very happy with me but we still had a good time.
Kenny loved his dog Peabody, when we were at Deborah and Karl's wedding and Peabody was at the vet and Kenny was on his cell phone several times checking in on how Peabody was doing. I was impressed with his love for Peabody but that was Kenny.
Kenny you are really going to be missed by your wife Diane, your family, friends and me and I can't forget to mention your buddies Jerry and Kramer.
Kenny I believe that you lived your life to the fullest and Kenny may you rest in peace.
Sincerely,
James H.
