

Kevin John O'Brien

March 3, 1982 - December 23, 2022

We are heartbroken to announce the death of Kevin John O'Brien. Who after a hard-fought battle with cancer sadly passed on December 23rd, 2022 at the age of (40).

A beloved son to (Kathleen O'Brien and Kevin O'Brien Sr). A loving brother to (Jimmy O'Brien Michael O'Brien and Kyle O'Brien) and an amazing uncle to (Madelyn O'Brien, Michael O'Brien, and Allison O'Brien). He will forever live on in the memories of those who held him closest.

Kevin was a graduate of St. Peter's Highschool and a student of Middlesex Community College. He had made his living working as a Carpenter and Painter.

Those who truly knew Kevin will remember him for his kindness, his sense of humor, and his overall caring nature as well as his love for cooking, history, science fiction, reading, writing, and cinema. He enjoyed concert going, traveling, and mostly spending time with family and friends. Although no amount of time seems long enough when it comes to the life of someone you hold close, Kevin would not want to be remembered in sorrow but celebrated for the times we were lucky enough to spend by his side.

“ I don't know how to get through this again. I want to see you smile and hear you laugh. I want to hear your voice not silenced by pain. I want to see you happy again knowing that this Cancer is behind you. That's what should be happening right now. Not this. I'm proud of you for fighting so hard. You deserved to win. I love you my beautiful boy and there will forever be a hole in my heart without you.

“ My brother Kevin, you came into my life when I was about 3 and a half. I realized this week that I have very few memories of life before you. We were each others first friend and also first enemies lol. We shared all of the same happiness and sorrows throughout our young lives. I look forward to one day remembering our good times together. When we were kids, we had always found a way to make each other laugh during the very worst of times a tradition we carried on into adulthood. So right now, that's what I miss the most because I could really use a dumb joke or one of those looks we'd exchange that said it all without saying a word. Love you and miss you forever

“ Saying goodbye to you is so hard, it is way too soon for you to part from us. You have shared so much knowledge with me over the years, whether about books, movies, or family stories. You made the best recommendations- always so thoughtful. Even though you always said I looked like the baby dinosaur, I still loved you. I still remember you giving me every episode of Dinosaurs on DVD as a secret Santa present. Even your jokes always came from a place of love. And your gifts sure beat two mismatched gloves. I will forever remember getting folded up on grandmas steps, because you had no where to fit your legs and we had no business fitting all of us cousins on those stairs to begin with. Or being squished in many different work trucks over the years. Or them catching fire and you throwing water on them and telling little Timmy to just keep driving. You always stuck up for me, and would always tease my brothers better than anyone else for me. I will miss you telling Conor about his egg shaped head the most. I find comfort in knowing you are with your dad and Michael again. You were literally and figuratively larger than life, and I am grateful to have so many memories to cherish. You put up a brave fight, and I'm sad you didn't get to beat it. We will all miss you, but rest easy Kevin John ❤️

“ I miss you with all my heart Kevin John. I miss turning you upside to dance on the ceiling as we sang the chorus to the Lionel Richie song. Been listening to it all week on YouTube. I love you Kevin.

“ Rest In Peace Buddy. Will definitely miss all of your stories. Remembering all the times you stuck up for me when Mel, Kyle and me would play fight as kids. You knew fun facts about anything and everything, you were so unbelievably smart. Any song that played on the radio, those oldies our dads made us listen to, you knew all about them and would tell us the story behind them. You made us all laugh, you found humor in any and every situation, teaching us as kids to not take everything so seriously. We all miss you and I know for sure that I'll carry all of this with me always. Rest In Peace Kevin John💕

“ My favorite memory of Kevin John was when we all went to Ireland. He flew down early with our grandparents and we all stayed in the house for a week before everyone else arrived. One afternoon my dad was sleeping on the couch and Kevin John, my sister and I put makeup all over my dads face. Red Lipstick and all!!! Then we put these little butterfly clips all over my dads head, and he slept through the whole thing.

“ I can't explain the sadness I feel. Sadness for a life taken so young who won't get to see his nieces and nephew grow.

He's supposed to be here, he's supposed to grow old with his brothers and his cousins. He's supposed to make us laugh and tell me old stories about the family, and I'm supposed to see him at the head of the dining room table for dinner next to Kyle and Grandpa.

We are all supposed to be together opening Christmas presents and watch Jimmy set the grill on fire during summer bbq's. All the "supposed to's" that will never be again. How did this happen?

We thought we had more time. You wanted to try some more and everyone was prepared to help you through it. I was so happy to hear you still wanted to fight. We didn't think you were leaving us yet.

I would say to myself, he's going to be ok, he can't leave, nope not another brother, please God don't take him away from his Mother and brothers, please, please, help him. I honestly thought some days, it would be ok.

I'm thankful for the 23 years I've had in your family and knowing you Kev. I gained 3 more brothers! Thank you for the laughs, the talks, and all the good times.

I find comfort in knowing you have no more pain, your Kevin again, fixing roofs in heaven with your Dad and catching him and Michael up on all they've missed. Tell them all about Maddy, Mikey, and sweet baby Allison. Tell them how much you loved them and they loved you.

Rest peacefully now Kev, and I want a big hug when I see you again even though I'll only be able to reach your waist.

You will be missed by me and so many others. Love, me, Lauren xo

“ I have know the O'Bien family for over 30 years. I meet Kevin when he was about 8 or 9 years old. It was during the time I used to take care and transport, his younger brother(Michael) as an Emergency Medical tech. Me and my partner/s would take him to school and back. Kevin was always greeting us at the door every morning, and after school. He always had a smile. While we were there, he would always have a conversation with us regarding movies, comic books, and little jokes we would go back at with one another. As long as I've known Kevin, He was always a very caring and thoughtful person with a great sense of humor. To the O'Brien family. My prayers , thoughts, and my tears are with you. My memories of Kevin will live with me forever. I have not just lost a friend but also a little brother. you all have always been and extended family to me and you all will be in my heart forever.
