“ Laura you completed my bro. I'll never forget that night many many years ago when Paul came home with a big smile on his face and he said Sean I just met my future wife. And of course I asked questions being in my early teens was she pretty was she nice and come to find out you were all of the above. I then remember meeting you for the first time when I believe yourself your sister and a friend or two cut out of school and met Paul at my house on East 34th Street in Brooklyn New York. Laura you were a great kind hearted sole and when were in our teens you used to give me money and tell me not to tell Paul...lol...you were the sister that I never had. I can go on and on but I'm gonna cut it short. Laura your in better place right now no more suffering may your sole rest in peace. I love you.

“ Patty & Family... I never knew your sister, but I can only imagine the pain that you're going through. Please accept my sincerest condolences as you go through this tough time. Nothing will ever replace the space in your heart that your sister filled. Keep that filled with beautiful memories and your experiences together, she will always be with you an angel on your shoulder.

“ My mother was the most driven, hard working, and toughest person I know. The way she loved so deep for her husband and children and always put everyone’s wants and needs before her own. Her bright personality will forever be in my head. Always laughing, speaking in italian, always in the kitchen. My mother did it all for us and now it’s time we all give back to her and show her how many people were always there with her for every step of this heartbreaking situation. Words will never do justice for the amount of love I have for you mommy. You will always be my #1 supporter just now you’re on my shoulder as my angel guiding me. May you rest in the sweetest of peace and always watch over daddy paulie and I. My warrior and rock forever.
