“ I remember when my big brother Larry went off on his tour of duty in the Army. It was one of the saddest days of my life. Although I was extremely proud I missed him very much, he was my hero. I would write to him and enclose some of my metal Soldiers for him. When he finally returned home he would take Danny and I to Hempstead State park where we would have to find him when he hid like a Soldier. It wasn't long after that it was my turn to head off to Vietnam, as I left he gave me a Miraculous Medal of Mary for my safety, I have never taken that medal off to this day. You embodied that simple but profound little medal, thanks Larry mission accomplished your Brother Bill.

Bill - that is a beautiful tribute to your brother. While I did not know Larry I did know many of the family members on 58th Street in Brooklyn. With that thought in mind please accept our condolences and prayers.
