

Lawrence M. Greco

August 4, 1958 - March 16, 2025

Lawrence Michael Greco, 66, of Port Richmond, passed away on March 16, 2025, at Richmond University Medical Center surrounded by his loving family. Born on August 4, 1958, Larry was a lifelong Staten Islander who grew up in New Brighton, surrounded by the love of his family and friends.

Larry was the beloved son of the late Benny Greco and the late Nancy Davidovich Greco. He was a dedicated father to his children: Larry Jr., Diana Louisson, Keith, Danny, Dillon, Nicholas, Eric, and Brooke. Larry's legacy is further carried on by his nine cherished grandchildren: Christa, Kiara, Jayla, Justin, Darin, Devin, Evan, Brayden Louisson, and Noelle Greco, and his beloved great-grandson, Jordan Velez Jr., affectionately known as "JJ". His family was his pride and joy, and he took immense pleasure in attending their sporting events, cheering them on with the enthusiasm only a devoted Dad and Grandfather could display.

In addition to his role as a father and grandfather, Larry was a devoted brother and uncle. He is survived by his siblings: Steve Greco, Catherine Contegiacomo, Suzanne Jiminez, Carol Cruz, James Greco, and Richard Greco, as well as many nieces and nephews. The bond among the Greco family was unbreakable, filled with love, laughter, and countless memories.

Larry was known for his vibrant spirit and passion for life. As a former owner and operator of AAA Apple Car Service, he was well-respected in his community. His entrepreneurial spirit and hard work were evident in everything he did. Beyond his professional life, Larry was an active athlete who loved participating in various sports, including softball, bowling, football, roller hockey, and golf. Sundays were sacred for him, as he dedicated those days to watching football, proudly rooting for the New York Jets.

Larry also had a special fondness for the beach, where he spent his summers basking in the sun. His love for outdoor activities brought him joy and relaxation, creating lasting memories with family and friends.

In his later years, Larry found happiness and companionship with his fiancée, Zorida Caliph. Their love was a testament to the joy and connection that can be found even in the later stages of life.

Larry's spirit, characterized by his humor, kindness, and zest for life, will be deeply missed by all who knew him. He leaves behind a legacy of love that will continue to inspire those fortunate enough to have crossed paths with him.

A funeral service will be held on March 20, 2025, at 6:00 PM at the John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals. Family and friends are invited to join in honoring Larry's life and celebrating the many cherished memories that will forever remain in their hearts

The family will receive friends from 2:00 PM to 7:00 PM on Thursday, March 20, 2025, at John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, New York.

“ Dad, it hurts that you left us so early way before your time we still had so much stuff planned to do and it hurts so bad you won't be here physically but, I know you will be at every vacation, party, and all my kids games cheering them on as always. I will miss our talks and all your crazy stories and you trying to tell me a joke you heard from somewhere and thinking it was so funny. There is so much more I can say about my father but one most important thing is if you needed him he was there no matter what. I love and miss you so much Dad now you are our angel watching over us every day ☐
☐☐ I will forever be a daddy's girl ☐☐☐

“ I can't believe this has happened. I wish I would've had the chance to show you how I overcame all of my struggles. You gave me so many memories that I keep with me to this day. It was you and I at Yankee Stadium at Game 1 in 95 when Mattingly hit the home run. All of the concerts we went to. I never forgot about you, Larry, and I never will. That gregarious laugh you had was unmistakable and all your own. Thank you for everything. I pray that your family will heal from this tragic loss. One thing is certain.. There will never be another like you.
