

Leo O. Beggan

July 1, 1935 - April 15, 2020

Leo Oliver Beggan, loving husband of Josephine Beggan, entered into the Kingdom of Heaven on April 15, 2020.

Leo Beggan was born on July 1, 1935 in Scotstown, County Monaghan in Ireland. He was the youngest son of Patrick and Susan Beggan. Leo came to the United States in 1959 after living for a short period of time in England. He met Josephine Sheridan, the love of his life not long after arriving and they were married in 1962 settling in Brooklyn near three of Josephine's sisters and their families. Together they raised five children.

For much of his working career, Leo was a building superintendent in the Bronx. He worked tirelessly, often six day weeks, which enabled all five of his children to attend Catholic grammar and high schools. Leo took joy in seeing his children experience educational opportunities he never had himself.

Leo was handy, able to fix almost anything and always lending his skills to his children and neighbors, expecting nothing in return. He had a unique sense of humor, a combination of corny and innocence with a great delivery. We will miss his jokes and laugh.

He was devoted to his Catholic faith. Leo and Josephine prayed, attended mass and were daily communicants at the Church of the Holy Child in Staten Island.

Leo maintained his faithfulness, devotion to his family and humor even as his eyesight worsened in recent years. True to himself, he didn't complain, continued his prayers, now memorized not read, and still found joy in each day. His joy and love were always there at family celebrations, and most noticeable anytime he looked at his beloved wife, Jo. Saint Peter was sure to see this joy as he welcomed him into the Kingdom.

Leo is survived by his loving wife Josephine. His children and their spouses, Sean and Marie Beggan, Kathleen and Don Campbell, Denise and Bob Esposito, Susan and Jimmy Philbin and James and Erin Beggan. He is also survived by his thirteen grandchildren, whom he loved dearly and took delight in, Donnie, Bobby, Brendan, Chris, Danielle, Connor, Kaitlin, Owen, Michael, Emmett, Kathryn, Emma and Jane. He will also be remembered by countless other relatives and friends.

A celebration of life mass for Leo will follow at a later date. In lieu of flowers, please send a donation to the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital at www.stjude.org/donate <<http://www.stjude.org/donate>>. Please check the Dedicate my donation box.

“ *Dear Uncle Leo,
So sorry to hear of your passing. I am going to miss you. I loved calling you and Aunt Josephine and getting all the news. I remember all the trips you guys made to Jersey over the years we always looked forward to seeing you guys and had a great time. You were always so positive and a great person to be around. Another Angel has earned his wings👼

“ I was introduced to the Beggan family as far back as 1971! I remember it's patriarch, Leo Beggan as a very faithful and devoted man to his family. He was hard working, kind, caring and a loving man. His devotion to our Catholic faith and to his family was never ending! He was simply a great man, no need to ask for anything more! May God grant you eternal peace in heaven.

“ To my best friend, my hero, my father,
Although we didn't get to say goodbye, I know the love you had for all of us is a lasting legacy. You were the best example of how to be a man, father and husband and how to live in faith. I am lucky I got to call you my Dad.
May you rest in peace.
Love always your son , James

“ Dear Grandpa,
I will forever cherish the time that I was lucky enough to spend with you. Some of my fondest childhood memories were when you and Grandma would come over to babysit and tell us stories and play games. You were always quick with a joke my personal favorite being the “Fruit Punch” joke. Your love for your family showed in everything that you did from the infamous six pack of Hersey chocolate bars that you could not leave without taking to the love that you showed your wife, my Grandma. I will never forget how whenever we would take a family photo you would always try to take the photo beaming with pride at Grandma and whisper to her something along the line of “We made this”. You will be missed and remembered by everyone who was lucky enough to know you.

“ Dear Grandpa,
I will miss your constant jokes and the light you brought to every family get together. One of my favorite memories growing up was when we would build the LEGO towers and remove the ceiling tiles in the basement to make the towers even higher. You never failed to ask not just me but all of the grand kids about how school is going and in my case if I had been working on any plays recently. I love you and I will miss you dearly.

“ Dear Beggan Family: Please accept our most sincere condolences on The passing of your beloved Leo. He was a kind, decent man - always generous with his time and guidance - and was just about the most devoted husband, father and grandfather I've ever known. I will never forget my dozens of visits to his home in Brooklyn, where he made it clear that I was always welcome and treated me like a member of his own family - whether it was a meal, a place to stay over, or just pleasant, meaningful conversation about friends and family. May Our Lord Jesus welcome you to heaven with open arms, to the tune of “The Streets of New York” 🇮🇷. Eternal rest grant to Leo, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he Rest In Peace, Amen 🙏✝️. With love and gratitude, Joseph Accetta, Sr. - for the Accetta Family.

“ We were very fortunate to have him in our lives. He treated me as a son. I will always have memories of baseball games, BBQ's and New Years Eve parties with him. He made you feel at home. The breakfasts after Christmas eve midnight mass at St Brendan's will forever be memorable. He showed us how to be a good man. I love you Dad.

“ Aunt Josephine and family, We are so sorry to hear of the passing of Uncle Leo. He will always be remembered as being so kind, patient and considerate of others. There are so many wonderful memories of Uncle Leo but the one that always brings me back to when we were young was the cookies that he brought to us from the local bakery in Brooklyn. Prayers and love to you. Love Joseph, Karin, Kristina, Clare, Elizabeth and William.

“ Grandpa,
You were always the most cheerful in any situation and always ready with a witty comment. You could always find the joy in things and for that I'm thankful to have known you. Every Sunday we visited you and went for brunch after church you could get the whole room smiling with just a few words. I know you got the warmest welcome into Heaven and I'm proud to be your grandson. Thank you grandpa.

You were the most devoted person I knew, to God and to your family. I'll forever think of you when that kind of devotion is needed of me. You were a true comedian; effortlessly funny, always perfect timing and delivery. I'll miss you when no one else has the right joke for the moment. It's been easy to admire you and I'll always be proud to be your grandson.

“ Grandpa,

A man that found the blessings in every moment of life, and led it with true humility. No matter the circumstance, Grandpa was quick enough to put one at ease with a witty joke.

We would sit at the table and have some lunch over tea while he would tell us an old childhood story. And as every humorous punchline approached, as we knew it would, I'd gradually grow a smile so wide I couldn't help but erupt in belly laughter. He had the ability to take you out of your element, and relish in the delight of being in his company. And although his sight was hindered, he was able to see each and everyone of us through the glow of his giant beaming heart. I will forever remember my grandpa to be the most selfless, hardworking, and kind-hearted man I know.

“ LEO THE GREAT

*-It was too late for a goodbye,
The time had passed swiftly,
We may never know why.
In a chair, behind a door of glass,
We worried you alone,
Rather you were attending High Mass.
We thought you were trapped
Behind a dismal wall.
God was just having you wait for the ultimate call.
As we fought angered sadness, shamingly too nice,
Knowing this last stop was a Treacherous vice.
We defined your solitude as abandoned and unbearable,
when all along you were chosen for God's table.
Your arms were bruised, being held so tight,
All because God's hands held you to the Light.
The son, The Father, The Grandfather,
Transcended to Heaven.
This saintly man was Leo Beggan.

“ My Sweet Dad

I miss you so much and my heart is broken. I was really blessed to have you as a Dad and to be able to spend so much time together. You had such an easy going personality and were quick with a joke. You were a light in a sometimes dark world. My first memory from childhood was of the two of us in the pre dawn hours eating breakfast then you tucking me in next to Mom with a kiss before you left for work. I remember you sleeping in a chair when I was six in the hospital getting my appendix out. You always loved me so much. I know that your love of our Lord and of our family was your driving force. You were so faithful and I know that God is good and you are in your rightful place. I would give anything to have one more day with you.

I am glad you are at peace my beautiful perfect Dad.

Love always

“ Grandpa. Always with a smile; never lacking in spirit. He loved all, no matter what, and his persistently positive attitude never failed to fill me with joy. He is the definition of a kind, loving, generous man that I am proud to call my grandfather. He loved to make his family laugh, and his innocence and demeanor made his jokes all the more hilarious. Even with his worsening eyesight, he somehow always knew who was talking to him instantly. Even on the phone, all it took was a "Hi, Grandpa!" and he would immediately know it was me. He was the life of family Christmas parties, and his connection to each family member was unique. He always knew how to make Grandma laugh, and he raised an amazing family that he was fully devoted to. Grandpa, you will always remind me of what's important in life, and may the love you shared with us live on forever. -Owen

“ Leo/Dad,

In life, people don't say how they feel about someone because it is awkward or not manly. But like the Kris Kristofferson lyrics in Me and Bobby McGee, "I would trade all of my tomorrows for one more yesterday" so I can tell you I love you and how much you mean to me. Thank you for showing me how to be a great husband and father, and I will miss you every minute of every day. Please pray for me next to our Lord, and keep watch over our family.

“ Dearest Dad,

Thank you so much for working so hard to provide us with the greatest life. A common theme for all of us and all who knew you will be your sense of humor and natural delivery, but your devotion to God and your profound love for Mom and all of your children outweighed even that. I feel so blessed to have you as my father and to have shared so many great memories with you. Gone too soon :'-(

We will always miss you, but we know that you have reached your rightful place and will be watching over us.

“ When I think of Grandpa, I think of the sweetest man who loved his people well. When we were young Grandpa was our favorite babysitter. Grandpa always enjoyed taking us on car rides, teaching us new games, and sharing a joke with the corniest punchline and wink at Grandma. Grandpa was the one who taught me all the ping pong tricks like how to serve the ball low over the net and how to play the corners to make your opponent run. I will forever remember the way he would spin the ball before a serve or pat his bottom with the ping pong paddle accompanied with "bet your bottom" and then hold up a dollar which resulted in laughing fits. When I think of Grandpa, I also think of "love" as a verb. Grandpa loved God and his family more than anything. Whenever I approached him, he greeted me as he always did with "oh hello Kait" and then his whole face would light up the same way it did when he talked to any of his grandchildren. Grandpa showed up for others and was the sweet, gentle patriarch of our family. Whether you knew him as Leo, a husband, father, brother, uncle, cousin, friend, or Grandpa, he was able to make you feel comforted and appreciated with a smile and joke. When I was young, I once overheard Grandpa say to Grandma, "oh look what we made here." My siblings told me they took have heard him echo that sentiment. At our last family party I looked at Grandpa from across the room and I noticed the same proud look on his face beaming at his family.

Oh Grandpa, I am going to miss you tremendously. Thank you for showing me how to love. I know you are beaming your light down on us. I am so proud to be your granddaughter. - Kait

“ I consider myself blessed and lucky to have had Leo Beggan as my father-in-law. He was a charmer from day one and I will miss his sense of humor and jokes the most. He loved his family and his God with everything he was. His sense of pride at being Josephine's husband made theirs a marriage to aspire to even after 58 years! I smile when I see the same sense of humor in James, and I will miss hearing their daily conversations about life and Lotto! Leo, you were a gentleman of the highest order. I have only a handful of memories of Leo growing up, but the thing I always remember when he visited was his sense of humour, he was great craic as we would say over here. He would always have a fun story or joke. He was a very kind and welcoming man and I remember visiting you in 2000 when I was in New York for the summer on a student visa, you all were so kind and I remember Leo being very welcoming and loved hearing stories from Ireland. Dear Aunt Josephine and family,

We are all so heart broken and will miss Uncle Leo very much. He was a very kind and generous man. I have to admit I did give him a little run around when he first started dating Aunt Josephine. He worked very hard for his family yet was always willing to lend a hand. He helped each of Aunt Josephine's sisters move in and fix up their houses which later became homes. Saturday night card games; breakfast after midnight mass Christmas Eve; Backyard family BBQ's; and sitting on the porch on East 16th Street. Lots of jokes, laughs and smiles. He was always kind and generous to me and gave us lots of love and support. There is no doubt that he is now in heaven and we are all blessed to have him as a Guardian Angel watching over us.

*Love you very much Uncle Leo,
Mary Elizabeth, Jim and family*
