“ *My beautiful, cherished friend of 40 years , my heart is heavy to learn you are no longer here. You were a trusted confident whose advice I always sought. Such kindness and wisdom, I could always turn to you and know there was no judgement, only support. You will be missed by so many , and your memory is a blessing. Rest In Peace, dear friend. “ Lillian was President of the Great Kills Garden Club when I joined in 1998. She was always so friendly and even sent me a note of welcome when I joined the Club. It was always a pleasure to talk to Lillian, and the love of family and friends always came through. Although she was not as active recently, I shall miss her warm presence at our meetings.
