With blessings, love and prayers we send to you. We pray the following words comfort you as they once did for us....

*Don't think of her as gone away-
Her journey has just begun
Life holds many facets
The Earth is only one
Just think of her as resting
From the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days and years
Think how she must be wishing
That we could know today
How nothing but our sadness can really pass away
And think of her as living
In the hearts of those she touched
For nothing loved is ever lost-
And she was loved so much.*

*We love you all so very much..
Love,
Tina, Peter,PJ & Andrew*

“ Barbara, Robert, Lori, Joey, Victoria, Nick and Gianna: Words cannot express the sadness we feel for Lori's passing. Our family has shared so many wonderful times together. The best of them just hanging out at Lori and Robert's BBQ'ing, Drinking, and most of all LAUGHING!!! I will always cherish those times!! I will always remember those fun weekends hanging out in the backyard with Lori. Some People come into our lives and leave footprints on our hearts! Lori was that person. I have this comforting feeling believing that she is no longer suffering, she is no longer sick. She is once again smiling, laughing. I truly believe that we never lose the people we love. Her love leaves an indelible imprint in our hearts and memories. We may not understand why she left this earth so soon, or why she left before you were ready to say good-bye, but little by little I pray that we all will remember that her Life gave us memories too wonderful to forget!

We are praying for all of you. Know that we love you and we are here for you!

“ My dearest friend Lori:

Words cannot explain what I am feeling at this time. I am so saddened that such a beautiful person inside and out has been taken by the Lord so soon. As I was driving home after Joey gave me the sad news I saw a rainbow and the sun shining so deeply in my eyes. I knew that was your way of telling me you are Ok and at peace.... I will always remember that funny giggle of yours. We had so many good times hanging out down the shore and with our buddies from tottenville. Remember our children's birthday parties, They were lots of fun. Now they're all grown up but you will now be their Angel watching over them. May God give them the strength through this very tough time. I prayed for your wonderful mother and family and also you my Angel. YOU were the strongest woman I know. No more suffering Lori. I will always keep you in my Heart. Sleep with Angels....Love you my friend. XOXO Mary Lou

“ My heart and prayers go out to you Barbara, Robert and Joey!
There is nothing I can say to make this any better. Remember the memories and share them with her children. My sympathies go out to all of you!

Barbara, remember when you had Lori walk into the bakery with Joey in her arms and I was just staring at the baby and she was just looking at cakes. That was a good one. I'll never forget that. I love you Barbara!

“ Where do I begin.....

Lori you have been my sister and my friend for over 20 years and my heart breaks at the thought of not seeing you again. The memories we've shared, the good and the bad, will always be a part of me and I'll cherish each and every moment for the rest of my life. I know you will watch over us, especially Nick and Victoria whom you adored beyond words. Please rest assured that Rob and I will keep our promise to you and be there for them.

Lori, I can honestly say that I am forever blessed and grateful for having you in my life. You have shown me the true meaning of what strength is. You never complained, not once, despite your pain and long struggles. I know how grateful you are and how much love you feel for your mom who took such amazing care of you. I now know exactly where your strength comes from!

Lori, I thank you for being the best God-Mother to Gianna who loves you deeply. I know that everyone who ever met you is a much better person for it. I know I am.

Lori, you will be so very missed, always thought of, and forever loved.

*Love you babes,
Lori*

We can never forget our darling little Lori who stood up with us at the altar while we were married. She was so sweet and pretty in her jr. bridesmaid gown and hat. Lori grew up to become even more beautiful both inside and out.

Barbara, may God bless you and your family, and may he give you the strength to bear this awful heartache. May the love of your friends and family comfort you. Hold dear the happy memories of Lori forever in your hearts. We know that Lori is at peace in Heaven.

You and your family have our heartfelt love and sympathy during this most difficult time. Our home is available for a visit whenever you are able to travel.

*Love and Prayers,
Jack and Kathy*
