

Lorraine Alaimo

July 8, 1928 - April 8, 2016

Lorraine Alaimo (nee Mosca) born on July 8, 1928 in Brooklyn New York. She was the youngest child of the late Sarah and Salvatore. Sarah was a seamstress and Salvatore a book binder. Lorraine had four siblings; Mary, Herbert, Rudolph and Ferdinand.

At age 18 Lorraine and her parents moved from Brooklyn NY to Demarest New Jersey.

When Lorraine was 22 she married her husband Anthony and moved back to Brooklyn. She chose to leave her modeling career behind her to become a loving wife, mother and grandmother.

Over the course of her married life Lorraine, while homemaking and raising her two children June and Steve, was always assisting her husband in his various business enterprises which included a toy store, car dealership and restaurant catering. She was very active in her children's Boy and Girl Scout programs.

Later in her life Lorraine used her spirit and artistic talents to develop and operate her own floral and drapery design studio. Additionally, she worked as a culinary consultant specializing in food presentation.

Looking back, it was Lorraine's energizing spirit that made her unique. She brought so many smiles and such laughter to those whose lives she touched with her warmth and kindness.

She will be ever missed.

Lorraine is survived by her daughter June Murphy and her son-in-law Robert, her son Steven and 2 grandchildren Robert Murphy Jr. and Erik Jon Murphy.
