

Louis D'Angelo

April 8, 1959 - November 20, 2022

Louis D'Angelo, 63 of Staten Island, formerly of Carol Gardens, Brooklyn passed away Sunday, November 20th at his home.

Son of the beloved late Mary and Thomas D'Angelo. Father to Louis D'Angelo and former husband and life long friend of Jeanne Amore. Louis is survived by his sister Linda and brother Robert.

He was an avid lover of bowling, playing cards and watching his Mets and Jets . Louis loved spending quality time with his family.

After a 19 year battle of fighting cancer with such dignity and grace, Louis was granted his wings. To know Louis was to love him - anyone blessed enough to encounter him was better in life for it. Loving, kind, caring, and selfless are just too few words to describe him.

A devout Catholic, he spent time daily praying for numerous family, friends and individuals he heard of along the way that needed Gods blessings. Always an inspiration of pure positivity when times were tough, as Louis would never complain of the fight he was fighting. It was always a smile and a warm felt "how are ya?" Louis was a beautiful example of what humanity means. He is loved by all who have met him and will be missed more than words can express.

Forever in our hearts and fondest memories.

The family will receive friends from 2:00 - 5:00 and 7:00 - 9:00 p.m. on Sunday, November 27, 2022, at the John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, New York.

“ Uncle Lou, I'll never forget the laughs and memories we had over the years. I will never forget how you cared and loves Jen and Christian . Before we could ask you how your doing , you were already mid sentence asking how we were. Never missing a family event , or any of Christian's little birthday parties. This last one in particular you spent most of the night outside in the yard with him playing basketball , these are the things I will never forget . Simply said your heart was big and you were genuine, you cared , you loved and you showed it .

I know your singing and blurting out random words and songs up there. Love you Godfather, Youl always live In our hearts And your Great Nephew will always especially have a place in his .
