“ I have been reminiscing about Brooklyn of late. Talking with my siblings, Robert, Julie and Larry-Madeline’s kids from 20th Avenue in Brooklyn - sharing great memories with your parents and all of you -New Years Eve parties, Disney World and Louis, dancing around the coffee table in the apartment when I was a kid- you were a good sport to entertain me. Keeping your parents in my prayers. - maybe my mom is having some coffee with them in Heaven. Many blessings to you, always 🙏

“ I lost my Dad today..... and as a Son who today lost his best friend.... along with the loss of my Mom 3 yrs ago..... I've always told my children that what you will miss the most about your parents is the wisdom and advice they provide you while they are with you,a parent will always tell you the truth about how life really has to go ❤️ Dad along with Mom made me the man I became today and the parent I also became because of them R.I.P Dad I Love You ❤️
