October 20, 1931 - August 2, 2023

Lucia Monteforte born, on October 20, 1931 to Madalena and Giuseppe Guastella in Vittoria, Sicily.

She is survived by her children, Giovanna, David and Josephine, and her grandchildren Lisa Marie and Anthony, Joseph and Andrea, and great-grandchild Isabella Rose.

Having grown up during the WWII era, life was challenging, but with two older brothers as protectors.

she was well taken care of.

At age 10, Lucia's passion for sewing began. With her family as mentors, she quickly excelled at her craft.

As a teenager, Lucia caught the eye of a neighbor boy, and as time went on they got to know each other.

Lucia fell for the love of her life, Rosario Monteforte. They were married on October 18, 1952.

In 1961 they made the decision to leave their family and construction business behind, and head to America for a better life. They settled in Brooklyn, NY and raised their family.

Lucia had many interests, she loved shopping, music, sewing, vacations, cooking, but most of all, she loved Sunday dinners with the family, and we all loved her famous pizza. Lucia was a talented seamstress, loving wife, mother, and grandmother.
