DEVOTED FAMILY MAN WHO ADORED HIS GRANDCHILDREN

Luciano (Lou) Di Giallonardo, 71, passed away on Thursday, March 31, 2016 at NY Weill Cornell Medical Center in Manhattan surrounded by his loving family.

Lou was an IT Professional, who retired from JP Morgan Chase. He was a proud veteran, serving in the United States Army. Lou was born in Cansano, Italy and upon entering the United States immigrated to Frederick, Colorado. Upon his discharge, he relocated to New York.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 45 years, Anna, his loving children Paul (Colleen), Daniel and Nancy Duta (Florin). He was adored by his grandchildren, Gabriella, Ryan, Grace, Louis (Luke), Michael and Ilianna. He is also survived by his dear sisters, Maria Ruscitti, Liberta Buono, Emily Corwin and Angela Di Giallonardo.

Funeral from the John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd. (at Eltingville station) on Monday at 9:00 a.m. A Mass of Christian Burial will take place at Our Lady Star of the Sea Church at 10:00 a.m. Entombment to follow at Resurrection Cemetery.

A gathering of family and friends will take place on Sunday from 2-5 and 7-9 p.m.

Contributions in Luciano's memory to Pancreatic Cancer Action Network @Pancan.org would be greatly appreciated.

“ I was a good friend of Louie's (that was our name for him) when he came to Frederick, CO, from Cansano, Italy. His grandparents lived close-by, and were dear friends. His grandfather always spoke to me of a grandson who was coming from Italy, and who had the rosiest of cheeks. When, Luciano arrived, he looked just as his grandfather described. My brother Rusty, who also passed away recently, and I were very good friends of Luciano's. I will always remember our experiences growing up in Frederick. The deepest of condolences to all of his family from my family and myself.
