

Lucy Curro

September 1, 1923 - January 25, 2018

Lucy Curro, age 94, of Staten Island, New York, died peacefully on Jan. 23, 2018 at her daughter's home in Michigan. Lucy was born September 1, 1923 in Manhattan, New York, the daughter of Biago and Angela Capitello. She was one of seven children, the eldest daughter.

Lucy was predeceased by her brothers Joseph, Micheal, and Vincent (Ralph) Capitello and sister Josephine Capitello. She is also predeceased by her husband Santo Curro and son Angelo Curro.

She is survived by her two sisters, Connie Capitello and Anna Wojtak, and daughter Antoinette Jacobsen, four grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and numerous loving relatives and friends.

Lucy and Santo owned an American Italian grocery store in Brooklyn, NY which was passed down to them from Lucy's grandfather. She also worked in the rectory at St. Francis DeChantel cooking for the priests. Church was a very important part to Lucy's life. Her simple faith, that God would always take care of her, carried her through the hardest times of her life.
