Memories of the years in Centereach- when you brought buckets of chicken to nanny and pop's house- I never saw that before-when you drove to LI with the family to vacation-when you and Aunt TC were laughing and having fun together in Lindenhurst and in Lake Grove- when you came to visit us in Centereach and mom made me clean the linen closet-must've been some story from when you were growing up together- I am glad you are with your siblings, and parents and those who love you and kept your chair waiting all this time. With love and prayers to those you left behind- as you nestle in the arms of your family maybe eating buckets of chicken.... xx et
