“ Aunt Marge (though not by blood) Was my aunt since 6th grade. Aunt of Carolyn Grande Pikowski (my BFF). We would go over to Aunt Marge's house and play with her 4 daughters all the time. Aunt Marge would make me laugh until my belly hurt. She was always smiling, telling jokes, drinking tea & loving life. I am truly blessed to have had her in my life. Though we didn't see each other much over the years since I moved to Florida. Every family event I would see her and she always made me feel as if I saw her yesterday. My deepest condolences to all of Aunt Marge's beautiful family. Love you all! Until we meet again... Sally Ann Aversano.

“ Margie I knew you over 40 years from you booking your trips through us and meeting you at Atlantic City. The fun we had on our cruises when you and Louise sang with the waiters on the Anthom of the seas to the time you won the beauty contest. Loved our Tuesday card games and going to the movies and dinner. we had fun in your pool and so many laughs. I will miss you Rest in peace my friend you will always be remebetrd

“ As children your mother and family came up to Putnam Lake to her parents bungalow during the summer. Margaret and my husband Robert Basile were cousins and hung out together. They would come up Reading Road to my property and play with myself, my cousins, Robert Grant , Celia Walton Matula , and my other cousin Jeannette Gill DiBella. Margaret was a tomboy so we would play Army, and cowboys and Indians and etc. We would have so much fun. I am Jeanne Fenty Basile and I am writing this for my family
